Society Generally Interested in Weddings Announced for Early Celebration.

NUMEROUS SOCIAL FEATURES

Entertainments and Meetings of Ladies' Organizations Also Hold Society's Attention.

Her Eyes.

Flowers are her garden's eyes;
They watch for her alone
Within whose smile there lies
A beauty like their own;
Their fragrant lids they open
In haste at morn to see
He who is all their hope,
So fair is she!

Stars are her heaven's eyes,
They watch her while she sleeps,
Lilies of paradise!
White pearls in azure deeps
For her glow and gleam
Throughout the tranquil night,
Bringing the lovely dream
For her delight.

Nor flowers nor stars are eyes
For me, I follow one—
Her lover—shallow-wise,
Companion to the sun;
Her eyes, both flower and star,
In loveliness outshine;
Mirrors of Love they are,
Reflecting mine!

—Frank Dempster Sherman.

Eddington—Pegram.

A marriage announcement of much interest in educational circles is that of Miss Nancy Thornton Pegram to Mr. Charles Mason Eddington.

The ceremony will take place the first week in November and the arrangements will be simple and quiet. No invitations will be issued. The only attendants will be Mrs. Edward Joseph Kelley, of Hampton, Va., and Mr. William T. Pegram, sister and brother of the bride.

The officiating minister will be Rev. L. B. Betty, of Park Place M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. William E. Evans, rector of Monumental Church.

The bride is the daughter of the late John T. Pegram and Mrs. Sarah T. Pegram, of 229 West Main Street. She is a woman of lovely character and one of the most successful teachers in the State. After twelve years of efficient service in West End high school, Miss Pegram will carry with her into her new sphere the love and good wishes of every pupil and every member of the faculty of that school.

Throughout the State Miss Pegram is known as an eloquentist of ability. No charitable institution nor church has failed to call upon her for service, without receiving a ready response.

She has been the organist in the Sunday school in the Female department of the State Penitentiary for many years and has a large place class for young ladies in Park Place Church. Miss Pegram is a graduate of the Richmond High School and an alumna of Richmond College.

Captain Eddington is the son of Mr. John and Mrs. Sarah Eddington, of Millford, Delaware. He has been in the employ of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad for the past six years.

After a tour of the Southern States, Mr. and Mrs. Eddington will reside at No. 210 West Main Street, Richmond. They will be at home after December 1st.

Tyler—Deitrick.

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Pollard Deitrick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Deitrick, to Mr. William Samuel Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler, of No. 515 West Franklin Street, will be celebrated in All Saints' Church Wednesday evening, October 25th, at 6 o'clock, the Rev. John Y. Downman to be the celebrant.

Mr. James Tyler will be best man, and the groomsmen Mr. Charles Brock Tyler, Mr. Marlon Hewitt, Mr. Maxey Deitrick, Mr. Frank Deitrick and Mr. Robert McDaniel.

The bride will be attended by Miss Josephine Tyler, as maid of honor. A reception to the bridal party and immediate families will be given by Mrs.

Chief, Miss Deitrick's sister. Afterward the bride and groom will leave for a Northern trip. They will live at No. 212 North Plum Street when they return.

Miss Deitrick is one of the most charming girls in Richmond society. Mr. Tyler is equally well known and very popular, and the wedding will be one of the handsomest and most interesting of the autumn.

Powers—Lyneman

On Thursday, October 26th, at 11 o'clock A. M., St. Mary's Catholic Church, Miss Emmeline J. Lyneman, only daughter of Mrs. Sophia A. and the late J. M. Lyneman, will be married to Mr. James M. Powers, son of Mrs. Mary E. and the late Edward Powers. Mr. Powers holds a responsible position in the telegraph office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The attendants will be Messrs. Joseph E. Powers, best man; Dr. W. A. McGowan, Captain R. Le Masurier, W. A. Sore, R. A. Sheppard and J. H. Lyneman. The Rev. Father Charles O. S. B. will perform the ceremony.

Lipscomb—Taylor.

Miss Callie Emelyn Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Taylor, will be married to Mr. John Bailey Lipscomb on Wednesday, October 25th, at 6:30 P. M., in the home of the bride, No. 5 West Cary Street, the Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith officiating.

The wedding celebration will be very quiet, on account of recent bereavement in the family of the groom. Miss Annie Taylor, the bride's sister, will direct the music, and Mrs. Thomas Fendley, Jr., will be best man.

The honeymoon will be spent North, and the future home of the young couple will be at No. 5 West Cary street.

Tiery—Doherty.

The wedding of Miss Annotta Elizabeth Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Doherty, to Mr. Andrew J. Tiery, son of Mrs. Katherine Tiery, will be celebrated Tuesday, October 24th, at 11 A. M., in St. Peter's cathedral. The Rev. Father Magri will officiate. Mr. Joseph Duffy will be best man, and

MISS MARY POWELL PAGE.

Miss Page is sponsor for Berryville, Va., representing the Seventh District and the Virginia Division, United Sons of Confederate Veterans at the reunion to be held in Petersburg October 25th-27th.

Mr. Nicholas Morano the only other attendant. After a tour of the Northern cities, the bride and groom will make their home at No. 208 South Fifth street.

Simonpietri—Dominici.

The wedding of Miss Alma Dominici to Mr. August Simonpietri will be celebrated in St. Peter's cathedral, October 26th, at 6:30 P. M.

Miss Madeline Dominici will attend her sister as maid of honor, and Mr. Joseph Dominici will be best man. Dr. W. A. McGowan will be master of ceremonies. Officiating at the nuptials will be the Rev. Dr. Joseph Magri and the Very Rev. J. J. Bowler.

The list of bridesmaids and ushers will include Messrs. Dottie Catagni, of Roanoke, Va.; Margaret Harrington, of Boston; Miss Aline Wood, of Washington; Grace Nelson, Mame Hughes and Josie Rogers, of Richmond; Messrs. Frank M. Boxley, F. M. Catagni, Clyde Ernest and Dr. J. P. Rex, of Richmond; Mr. Nash Palmore, of Trenholm, Va., and Mr. Benjamin Dominici, brother of the bride.

The evening before the wedding will be signified by a reception in the home of the bride, and a box party given at the Academy by the groom.

Mr. Simonpietri is a nephew of Mr. Andrew Antoni, an old and well known Richmond citizen. He is a native of Corsica, but for fourteen years has made Richmond his home, and is acting French consul. He has been unusually successful in business, and is the proprietor of large interests here. Miss Dominici is a niece of Messrs. Louis, Joseph and John Catagni, of Roanoke, and the daughter of Mr. Christopher Dominici. She possesses unusual personal attractiveness and is widely known and esteemed.

Jones—Locknane.

The home of Mrs. Dora Locknane, on West Cary Street, was the scene of a very pretty marriage Thursday night, when her only daughter, Marie, became the wife of Mr. Robert E. L. Jones, of Charlottesville. The bride wore a handsome costume of blue silk, and carried a large bouquet of white roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Lavonia Jones, of Buckingham, a sister of the groom, wore cream crepe de chine. Mr. Colwell Locknane, a brother of the bride, attended the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. B. Hutson, of Pine Street Baptist Church.

Mr. Jones is well known in Richmond, having been in the insurance business here for several years, and now holds a responsible position with the Metropolitan Insurance Company of Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home after November first at Charlottesville.

Much Interest Felt.

Much interest is manifested in the recent announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Zilla Ailes Wynne, of "Grove," Virginia, to Mr. Oscar Lee Farrow, of Covington, Kentucky.

Miss Wynne is a highly cultured young lady, very pretty, and is connected with some of the most prominent and best Virginia families.

Mr. Farrow is the nephew of Superintendent E. P. Goodwin, of the Cincinnati division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, and is a rising young railroad man. He has many friends in Virginia, where he resided for a number of years. The wedding will be quietly solemnized in the home of the bride's parents on November the 15th.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been sent out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Faulkner, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Love, to Dr. Samuel P. Latane, of Winchester, Va.

The bride will be attended by her cousin, Miss Lillie W. Faulkner, daughter of ex-Senator Charles J. Faulkner, of Martinsburg, and Miss Lettie Latane, of Baltimore, sister of the groom, as maids of honor. The ushers will be Dr. R. S. Blackburn, of Washington; Dr. L. M. Allen, of Baltimore; Mr. H. T. Halladay, Jr., of Virginia; Mr. J. Craig McLanahan, of Baltimore; and Dr. Philip W. Boyd, Jr., of Maryland. Mr. Conrad and Mr. Randolph T. McGuire, of Winchester. Mr. James A. Latane, of Baltimore, the groom's brother, will be the best man.

Miss Love, who is a very lovely young woman, is a granddaughter of the late Charles J. Faulkner, who was a distinguished lawyer and former minister to France, and a niece of ex-Senator Charles J. Faulkner, of Martinsburg.

Dr. Latane comes of a Huguenot family, which settled in South Farnham Parish, Essex county, Va., in 1700. His father was the late Bishop James A. Latane, D. D., of Baltimore, and he has two brothers, Dr. John H. Latane, professor of history in Washington and Lee University, Lexington, and Mr. James A. Latane, assistant State's attorney for the State of Maryland.

Brooks—Kishpaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kishpaugh have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Katherine, to Mr. O. G. Brooks, on Wednesday, October 25th, at 8:30 P. M., in the home of the bride, No. 1201 Prince Edward Street, Fredericksburg, Va.

Watts—Frierson.

Mrs. Laura Barner Frierson, of Florence, Ala., has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Amanda Warren Frierson, to Major Charles Wilder Watts, of the Virginia Military Institute. The marriage will be celebrated in the First Presbyterian Church at Florence, Thursday evening, November 2d, at 8:30 o'clock.

Woodfin—Crutchfield.

Judge and Mrs. John Jeter Crutchfield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to Mr. Howard Korr Woodfin. The wedding will take place in November.

Miss Crutchfield is a very attractive girl, possessing a very pleasant style of beauty. Mr. Woodfin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Woodfin, of this city.

Pearson—Wingfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton H. Wingfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Bessie Turner, to Mr. Julian Bernard Pearson.

The wedding will take place Wednesday evening, November 1st, at 7 o'clock, at Cool Spring Church, Hanover county, Va.

Company B German.

Following closely in the wake of two of the most brilliant functions ever given in Richmond—the luncheon to President Roosevelt and Mrs. Montague's luncheon to Mrs. Roosevelt—was the German given by Company B of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion to the Virginia Military Institute cadets, Wednesday evening, October 18th, in the Masonic Temple, which was never decorated more artistically, the stairways being festooned with Southern smilax leading to halls filled with groups of palms, lardella's orchestra seemed inspired and rendered perfect music.

The following ladies present were chaperones: Mrs. James Keith, Mrs. Geo. D. McAdams, Mrs. James Rutherford, Mrs. J. M. Waller, Mrs. P. L. Conquest, Mrs. St. Julian Oppenheimer, Mrs. Sol. Cuthbert.

Some of those present were: Misses Word, Nellie Davenport, Cowles, Avis

Complete Showing of the Late Autumn and Winter Millinery Modes

In the impressive beauty and the versatility of the present display, this section emphasizes anew the supreme position it has attained as an authentic source of refined, original and exclusive Millinery. The best ideas from Paris and New York are always in evidence here, and to these are constantly added numbers of meritorious creations from our own talent. We cite a trio of recent developments:

A SHELL HAT, in white, fashioned of an exquisite French felt, faced with velvet and trimmed at side and back with a cluster of white plumes.

A PLATEAU, of black velvet, with spray of white plumes, aigrette across top, and a dashing bow of Persian ribbon at bandeau.

A MOST EFFECTIVE CREATION, in pale blue velvet and cloth of gold, with white snake plume surrounding the crown; finished with a huge gilt rose.

Among Our Semi-Dress Effects

We Show Many Stylish and Becoming Shapes for Every Type of Face.

The pleasantest feature of the news, though, is that within a range of prices of from $2.98 to $6.00 we have reproduced many of the most favored styles in the more costly Hats, creations that you'd expect to find in the show-room at prices that would average double. But for specific mention we quote these three attractive styles at prices equally so.

Napoleon effect in felt edge of brim and crown trimmed with double row of white velvet, wing at side held by silk covered button—very jaunty—comes in Red, Pearl, Alice and Navy, DSC.

Stylish Turbans of scratch felt, the brim trimmed with tabs of velvet in self tone, outlined by braid of contrasting color. Each tab tipped with a silk covered button—smart gulls at side front— in Alice, Navy, Pearl Gray, and reseda, $1.50.

Becoming Turbans in plush with crown of draped silk velvet extending over side and down brim simulating a wing—strictly tailoring in effect—colors: Black, Brown, and shades of Mode; the crowns in self and contrasting tones—very special, $2.48.

Home of the Tailored Suits.

Here you'll find your style—the style most becoming to you. If you look well in a suit with long coat, wear it. If you look better in one with a short coat, wear that. You like the Eton? So chic! You shall have it. The woman with well-set-up figure will be happy in a close-fitting coat suit. But if you like the ease, roominess and comfort of a loose coat suit, you'll find it here. Surely, Fashion was never so good-natured as she is this autumn.

Our buyer, having just returned from the northern market, secured some of the very latest styles in every model, and by way of illustrating the advantages he secured in price we quote just four of the new arrivals:

Stylish 27-inch Box Coat Suits in wide wale Cheviot. Velvet collar, turnback cuffs, satin lined; killed skirts of 18 gores. Mannish models especially designed for Misses or small women; come in grey $15.00

Stunning Suits of broadcloth in wine color and Daffnil with 50-inch full, tight-fitting coats, taffeta lined throughout, lapped seams. Skirts are gored models, fashioned with panel of plants headed by buttons. $25.00

Handsome Suits of Panama in dark blue and black; the 50-inch coat is a glove-fitting model made with shawl collar of panne velvet and velvet cuffs. Skirts designed with cluster plaits, coat lined to waist with taffeta, $28.50

About the most attractive of the many new models is a 50-inch full, light-fitting Coat Suit that buttons through; these are collarless, shaped straps conforming to the lines of the figure cut collarless, on front and back; the collarless and cuffs are fashioned in scroll design, piped with braid; outlining inlaid velvet of harmonizing tone braided with the soutache. The material is of fine broadcloth and comes in Plum, Garnet and Green; the skirts are killed models of 13 gores. $30.00
Especially priced at.....

Women's Coats: Four Great Values.

We select just four numbers from amongst our most meritorious models, distinguished by their style, superior tailoring and worthy materials, and quote them at very special prices, that the expectations of our patrons may be adequately realized in every essential—style, quality and price.

The public has learned to expect much in this section, and these quotations are tendered with the view of meeting your every anticipation:

$6.38 A SEVEN-EIGHT LENGTH collarless Model, in men's wear mixture of gray and tan (herringbone weave) fly front, plaited back, with strap belt.

$7.98 AN EMPIRE MODEL in blue and light and dark gray Melton, a double-breasted style with notched collar. All seams lapped.

$10.00 VERY STYLISH MODEL in a 3-4 length box coat designed with a wide, graduated box plait down center back, notched collar of velvet, patch pockets. The material is a hard-twisted cover in a very nobby shade of tan.

$18.00 A NEW PADDOCK MODEL in covert of a handsome herringbone weave, fly front, notched collar, strictly tailored and finished—satin lining in sleeves and to waist.

Stunning Little Coats, Caps and the Most Captivating of Bonnets for the Tots

You can fit baby out here, with the cunningest of Bonnets and smartest little Coats, designed for their comfort and their "vanity," at the most modest cost. As specials we quote:
